Day 3 Ring of Kerry or Dingle Peninsula

Explore the Ring of Kerry, a 100-mile drive with attractive villages and views, and perhaps stop at the Skellig Experience to learn about the monks who once lived there, or experience the wild Atlantic scenery of the Dingle Peninsula and the charming fishing town of Dingle. (B)

Day 2 Adare Village | Killarney

Head to Adare, famous for its thatched cottages. Stop for photos and a walk along the main street, then journey south into the mountainous countryside. Enjoy a leisurely afternoon exploring Killarney National Park, nearby Muckross House & Gardens, or the shops in town. (B)

Day 4 Cork Sightseeing

Drive into the rich farming country of Cork or stop in Blarney to kiss the famous "Stone of Eloquence." Continue along the glistening shores the Copper Coast, with a stop at the Cobh Heritage Center or the beautiful coastal villages of Youghal and Dungarvan, en route to Waterford. (B)

Day 5 Waterford | Dublin

Spend the morning exploring the ancient waterside village of Waterford. Travel north to Dublin, either heading inland via the medieval town of Kilkenny or through the delightful Wexford and Wicklow countryside. Your elegant Victorian hotel overlooks Dublin Bay a few miles south of the city center. (B)

Journey across the center of the country as you head to the famous Dromoland Castle Hotel. We recommend that you arrive at your hotel early to enjoy the luxurious facilities. (B)
